

PEAKS, SITES AND CYCLES: PROGRAMME

TUESDAY 14 TH JULY: MEETING ROOMS 2 & 3, FASS BUILDING
1200-1300	LUNCH
1300-1345	WELCOME AND INTRODUCTIONS 1 minute each to introduce our photos and ourselves
THEME 1: PEAKS AND CYCLES
1345-1445	INVESTIGATING TRANSPORT AND ENERGY IN TIME: CHALLENGES FOR QUANTITATIVE RESEARCH Giulio Mattioli ICTs AND DAILY RHYTHMS: HOW MOTHERS IN TAIWAN MANAGE THEIR TIME Sumei Wang
1445-1630 TEA/COFFEE @1545	WORKSHOP Academic square-dancing: small groups will discuss the reading pack and their own projects, and position themselves in relation to the readings and each other.
1630-1730	FLOORBALL (WITH TIME FOR CHECK IN AFTER FLOORBALL)
1800-1915	THE RHYTHMICITY OF EVERYDAY LIFE IN CITIES: IMPLICATIONS FOR ENERGY CONSUMPTION Tim Schwanen, Transport Studies Unit, University of Oxford
1915	DRINKS RECEPTION & WALK TO INFOLAB (ON CAMPUS) FOR DINNER

WEDNESDAY 15 TH JULY
THEME 2: SITES	MEETING ROOM 2 & 3, FASS BUILDING
915-1015	INFRASTRUCTURAL LAYERING: MOBILITY, DIGITAL CONNECTIVITY, AND ENERGY DEMAND Alan Wiig, Temple University, Philadelphia PLANNING, PRIORITIES AND PRACTICES: MAKING SPACE FOR ALLOTMENTS AND CAR PARKING IN STEVENAGE Nicola Spurling, Lancaster University
1015-1030	Coffee/tea break
1030-1145	THEME 2 WORKSHOP: SITES Participants move around a carousel of site-related puzzles and discuss them with one another
1145-1200	ELECTRIC RHYTHMS: THE BEAT OF THE CITY Gordon Walker, Lancaster University
1200-1300	LUNCH
1300-1730	FIELDWORK: Start in meeting rooms 2 & 3. From 4pm in The Storey Institute, Lancaster LANCASTER RHYTHMANALYSIS: IDENTIFYING PEAKS, SITES AND CYCLES After being briefed on the fieldwork task, we will go into Lancaster and work in small groups. Each group to produce an exhibit in three parts (based on observations at 3 specific times in the afternoon), for use the next day.
1745-1845	TRANSPORT CHALLENGES: INSIGHTS FROM TRANSPORT FOR LONDON Clare Sheffield, Transport for London. Venue: The Storey Institute, Lancaster
1900-2130	Dinner, Whaletail Café, Lancaster

THURSDAY 16TH JULY: MEETING ROOMS 2 & 3, FASS BUILDING
THEME 3: CONSEQUENCES AND IMPLICATIONS
900-1100	EXHIBITION & WORKSHOP Viewing and re-arranging the exhibits from the fieldwork (by space, by time). Groups will then explore the consequences and implications of peaks, sites and cycles, drawing on the fieldwork materials.
11-1130	COFFEE/TEA BREAK
1130-1230	HOW INFRASTRUCTURES AND CONSUMERS INTERACT: INSIGHTS FROM THE INTERFACE Catherine Grandclement and Magali Pierre, Electricite De France, Paris MOVEMENT OF GOODS: MEETING THE RETAIL PEAKS – OR NOT? Tony Whiteing, Institute for Transport Studies, Leeds University
1230-1300	PEAK MOMENTS: Participants and DEMAND visitor Rick Diamond comment on the stand out moments of the summer school
THURSDAY AFTERNOON: A light lunch will be provided. Depart for camping trip to the Lake District.	